

Deciduous Trees

Acer palmatum – Japanese Maple species

Small tree 10 – 25 feet, slow growing, green leafed variety performs the best. Good in areas protected from winds, and having partial shade.

Acer platanoides Crimson King – Norway Maple

25 - 50 ft in height, red foliage, slow growing tree with a rounded canopy

“Deborah” Variety - faster growth , more upright than the the “Crimson King”, purple foliage turns to red then bronze in the fall.

Betula pendula – European White Birch

Upright branching with weeping side branching. Average mature tree 30-40’ high. Bark on main trunk and limbs become white, marked with black clefts. Rich green glossy leaves, diamond shaped with slender, tapered point.

Celtis sinensis - Chinese Hackberry

Rounded crown; 30-40’; leaves glossy, deciduous; inconspicuous flowers; good lawn or street tree; takes wind.

Crataegus phaenopyrum – Washington Hawthorne

Member of the rose family. Moderate growth to 25-30’ ht with a spread of 20’. Glossy small lobed leaf that turn bright orange and red in the fall. Known for it’s pretty spring flowers and fruits in the summer and fall.

Lagerstroemia indica Biloxi – Crape Myrtle

Deep glossy green foliage , fall color is orange to yellow. Showy flowers in long clusters pink in color. To 25’ in height , not good in areas of heavy fog.

Malus floribunda – Japanese Flowering Crab Apple

Small tree to 25’. Takes full sun to partial shade. Showy flowers in the spring . Golden fall color.

Pistacia chinensis – Chinese Pistache

Moderate growth. Foliage colors beautifully in fall; scarlet, crimson, orange and sometimes yellow.

Platanus acerifolia Bloodgood – London Plane Tree, Sycamore

Medium size tree 30’-70’ high. Lobed leaves .Creamy colored bark fades to gray. Tolerates smog, soot, dust and reflected heat. Good avenue tree. Resistant to both Anthracnose and Powdery Mildew.

Prunus blireiana – Flowering Plum

Deciduous tree with graceful leaves to 25’ Ht. And 20’ Wide. Leaves are reddish purple, turning greenish bronze in summer. Flowers are semi-double, fragrant, pink to rose.

Pyrus calleryana – Aristocrat Pear

Leaves glossy dark green, red in the fall . Strong branching pattern . Flowers white. To 30’ in height.